11. VOTING ON CONTRACTS

A Director may not vote in respect of any contract in which he is interested or any matter arising thereout.

12. ROTATION OF DIRECTORS

- 12.1. At the first Annual General Meeting of the Company, all the Directors shall retire from office and at the Annual General Meeting in every subsequent year one-third of the Directors for the time being, or if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest one-third, shall retire from office.
- 12.2. The Directors to retire in every year shall be those who have been longest in office since the last election, but as between persons who became Directors on the same day, those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree amongst themselves) be determined by lot.
- 12.3. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.
- 12.4. When a Director has served three terms of three years in office, he or she may not offer himself or herself for re-election. Notwithstanding this Article 12.4, in exceptional circumstances, where the Company is unable to appoint a candidate as Director having the required expertise or skillsets of the retiring Director, and if the retiring Director gives notice in writing that he or she would be willing to be re-elected, the Company may resolve at the meeting at which the Director retires for the re-election of such Director for a specified period to be determined by the Company.
- 12.5. The Company, at the meeting at which a Director retires in manner aforesaid, may fill the vacated office by electing a person thereto, and in default the retiring Director shall, subject to Article 12.4, if offering himself or herself for re-election, be deemed to have been re-elected, unless at such meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill such vacated office or unless a resolution for the re-election of such Director has been put to the meeting and lost.
- 12.6. Subject to Article 12.4, no person other than a Director retiring at the meeting shall, unless recommended by the Directors, be eligible for re-election to the office of Director at any general meeting unless, not less than 3 nor more than 21 days before the date appointed for the meeting, there has been left at the Office in writing, signed by a Member duly qualified to attend and vote at the meeting for which notice is given, of his or her intention to propose such a person for election, and also notice in writing signed by that person of his or her willingness to be elected.
- 12.7. Subject to Article 6.2, the Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase or reduce the number of Directors, and may also determine in what rotation the increased or reduced number is to go out of office.
- 12.8. The Directors shall have power at any time, and from time to time, to appoint any person to be a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing Directors. Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next Annual General Meeting, and shall then be eligible for re-election, but shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting.
- 12.9. The Company may by ordinary resolution of which extended notice given in accordance with section 396 of the Act remove any Director before the expiration of his or her period of office, notwithstanding anything in these Articles or in any agreement between the Company and such Director. Such removal shall be without prejudice to any claim such Director may have for damages for breach of any contract of service between him or her and the Company.

- 12.10. A Director who wishes to resign before the expiration of his or her period of office must provide one months' written notice to the Board of Directors of the Company at its registered office.
- 12.11. The Company may by ordinary resolution appoint another person in place of a Director who is removed from office under Article 12.9 or resigns under Article 12.10. Without prejudice to the powers of the Directors under Article 12.8 the Company in general meeting may appoint any person to be a Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional Director. A person appointed in place of a Director so removed or to fill such a vacancy shall be had become Director on the day on which the Director in whose place he or she is appointed was last elected a Director.

13. PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

- 13.1. The Directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. Where there is any equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote. A Director may, and the Secretary on the requisition of a Director shall, at any time summon a meeting of Directors. If the Directors so resolve it shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of Directors to any Director who being resident in the State is for the time being absent from the State.
- 13.2. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors may be fixed by the Directors, and unless so fixed shall be four.
- 13.3. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their number but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to the Articles of the Company as the necessary quorum of Directors, the continuing Directors or Director may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to that number or of summoning a general meeting of the Company, but for no other purpose.
- 13.4. The Directors may elect a Chairman of their meetings and determine the period for which he or she is to hold office, but, if no such Chairman is elected or if at any meeting the Chairman is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the Directors present may choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.
- 13.5. The Directors may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such member or members of the Board as they think fit; any committee so formed shall, in exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Directors.
- 13.6. A committee may elect a Chairman of its meetings; if no such Chairman is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairman is not present within 5 minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the members present may choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.
- 13.7. A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Questions arising at any meetings shall be determined by a majority of votes of the Directors present, and when there is an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
- 13.8. All acts done by any meeting of the Directors or of a committee of Directors or by any person acting as a Director shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Director or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director.

13.9. A resolution in writing, signed by all the Directors for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Directors, shall be as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Directors duly convened and held.

13.10. A person entitled to be present at a meeting of the Board shall be deemed to be present for all purposes if he or she is able (directly or by Electronic Communications Technology) to speak to and to be heard by all those present or deemed to be present simultaneously. A Director so deemed to be present shall be entitled to vote and be counted in a quorum accordingly.

14. SECRETARY

14.1. The Company shall have a Secretary who shall be appointed by the Directors for such term and upon such conditions as they think fit; and any Secretary so appointed may be removed by them.

14.2. A provision of the Act or these Articles requiring or authorising a thing to be done by or to a Director and the Secretary shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as Director and as, or in place of, the Secretary.

15. THE SEAL

15.1. The seal shall be used only by the authority of the Directors or of a committee of Directors authorised by the Directors in that behalf, and every instrument to which the seal shall be affixed shall be signed by a Director and shall be countersigned by the Secretary or by a second Director or by some other person appointed by the Director for that purpose.

16. ACCOUNTS

16.1. The Directors shall cause proper books of accounts to be kept relating to:

- a) all sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which the receipt and expenditure takes place;
- b) all sales and purchases of goods by the Company; and
- c) the assets and liabilities of the Company.

Proper books shall not be deemed to be kept if there are not kept such books of account as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs and to explain its transactions.

16.2. The books shall be kept at the Office or, subject to section 282 of the Act, at such other place as the Directors think fit, and shall at reasonable times be open to the inspection of the Directors.

- 16.3. The Directors shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounts and books of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of members not being Directors, and no member (not being a Director) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document except as conferred by statute or authorised by the Directors or by the Company in general meeting.
- 16.4. The Directors shall from time to time in accordance with sections 178, 294 and 324 of the Act cause to be prepared and to be laid before the Annual General Meeting of the Company such profit and loss accounts, balance sheets, group accounts and 16.5. A copy of every balance sheet (including every document required by law to be annexed thereto) which is to be laid before the Annual General Meeting of the Company together with a copy of the Directors' report shall not less than 21 days before the date of the Annual General Meeting, be sent to every person entitled under the provisions of the Act to receive them.

18.2. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any manner hereinbefore authorised to:

- a) every Member
- b) every Director
